Copy of Sri A. Narasimha Iyer, Petition d/11-1-52.

Sub: ESTABLISHMENT-Re-employment of retired men of Survey & Land Records Department--orders requested.

I submit that I have to retire from service on the forenoon of 9-4-1952. I am eligible to be re-employed under the existing Government orders permitting retired men of survey and Land Records department to be in service upto 60 years of age.

I have been doing my duties satisfactorily and I feel fit to excute my duties as before.

My son and daughter are at present studying at Bellary and it will be beneficial if I am re-employed here itself.

P.T.O.

I therefore request I may be re-employed as District Surveyor at Bellary or in any Tamil District and favoured with early orders so as to commence my re-employment from the date of my retirement.

Copy of N.Dis C.No.342/52 H-1 dated 13-1-52 from the Collector of Bellary.

Submitted to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras.

2. Sri Narasimha Iyer, District Surveyor in Bellary is quite and healthy. He is moreover quite active and energetic. The question of re-employing him (after he is retired) may be considered. In view of the paucity of qualified Survey officer, it would be desirable to re-employ him, if the Government please.
